2016-2017

Graduate Program in Demography

Based on the reporting period June 1, 2016-May 31, 2017.

Prepared by

Stephen A. Matthews
Director, Graduate Program In Demography

and

Peter S. Kim
Ph.D. Graduate Student,
Human Development and Family Studies and Demography

June 2017

NOTE: The data and counts presented here are based on materials solicited from graduate students and are likely to be an undercount in some sections. The counts reported are thus the “minimum” count as of June 1, 2017. Throughout the report graduate student names are in bold and demography faculty names are underlined.

SUMMARY

A: Publications

- 16 graduate students have published at least one publication (academic paper, book chapter, book review, or technical report/research brief).
- 9 graduate students were sole author or lead author on 11 publications.
- 22 total number of articles published or forthcoming (at time of data collection).
- 2 book chapters were published or forthcoming.
- 1 book review was published.
- 30 publications were “under review”
- 20 different graduate students listed as an author
- 15 of the 30 articles sole/lead authored by graduate students

B: Presentations

- 75 presentations were made at international, national and regional conferences.
- 17 graduate students were authors/co-authors of 22 papers/posters at the PAA 2017
- 18 of the 22 papers/posters were led by graduate students; including 12 as sole authors.

C: Honors, Awards, Research Grants, Fellowships/Traineeships

- 21 graduate students received a combination of honors, awards, research grants, and fellowships/traineeships.

D: Internships

- 4 graduate students completed internships.

E: Services

- 23 graduate students engaged in professional services, such as reviewing for journals (7), serving on committees within professional organizations (8), participated in serving at a conference or a program (8), or assisted in the graduate program at Penn State (6).

F: Program completion

- 9 graduate students have completed their dual-degree MAs, and 6 graduate students have graduated from the program.
